

Partner with us.

Valeyo delivers purpose-built business solutions that help financial institutions grow, innovate, and create stronger, more connected experiences. We strive to build the best, so we only partner with the best.

Become part of something bigger. As a partner, you join a community of expert providers committed to building for the future. Collaborate with us and deliver true omnichannel experiences for institutions and their customers.

Join our ecosystem

Boost recurring revenue: Tap into our existing client base and instantly get new customers through leads and referrals.

Elevate your brand: Connect with an extensive and growing network of 20+ technology and service providers.

Integrate with ease: Our API-based platform makes the integration experience seamless. Delight at how easily our solutions plug n' play with yours.

Increase your reach: With 3 in-market products for in-branch and omnichannel loan origination, Valeyo's technology is already transforming retail, small business, and commercial lending. Canadian-based and built, we're delivering seamless, end-to-end lending experiences across a national reach.

36%

market share in the credit union industry

6,000+

active users on our technology suite

140,000

credit applications and insurance transactions processed since 2018

Grow your brand & presence

Contact the Partnership Team for more information.

Valeyo is a leading Canadian-based solutions provider, partnering to deliver a full suite of business solutions, including lending technology and insurance related products and services for financial institutions nationwide. For more than 40 years, clients have trusted us to be their go-to provider based on the strength of our proprietary products, strategic partnership and people. Valeyo is a wholly owned, independently operated subsidiary of Securian Financial Group.

